OGDEN OPERA HOUSE

Emma Abbott Opens the New Temple of Art.

DESCRIPTION OF THE HOUSE.

"The Rose of Castile" the First Bill—Farewell of an Old-Time Legend Will Now Appear.

OGDEN, Dec. 29.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]

OGDEN, Utah, (pop. 7,000).—Union opera house; a dilapidated affair; seats 100; W. Van Dyke, manager; rent only. A good town to skip.

The above legend, which has stood year in and year out in the columns of the leading San Francisco theatrical paper, and formed a decidedly black eye to all of Ogden's enterprise, will have to be taken out after to-night and replaced with something like the following:

OGDEN, Utah, (pop. 15,000).—Grand opera house; handsome theatre; seats 1,300; to 1,500; Hovey & Phillips, managers; rent or share. Good town to skip.

The proudest moment Ogden ever experienced, not excepting the great carnival occasion, was to-night when Frank J. Cannon led Emma Abbott out upon the stage of the new opera house and introduced her as the queen of song to Ogden, the Queen City of the Mountains. Every loyal son of Rex rose to the occasion and the cheers that went up when the strains of the leading San Francisco theatrical paper, and formed a decidedly black eye to all of Ogden's enterprise, will have to be taken out after to-night and replaced with something like the following:

with carved ornaments set with choice jewels and stained glass with mirror panels. The decorations and contour are suggestive of Moorish style.

The foyer is a pleasing semi-circle in the rear of the auditorium. Oak staircases on either side lead to the balcony and family circles above. Each stair is supplied with a balcony in which is placed a bronze statue holding aloft a torch which throws beautiful electric rays of light upon the foyer and the Italian volute carvings which adorn the view of the auditorium. Draw inside the draperies and we are at the entrance to the auditorium with the stage in the opposite. The first floor is divided into orchestra and balcony circles; above it is the balcony and family circle, still above it is the gallery proper. The auditorium is 55 feet between walls in width and 73 feet in length and seats according to the architect's statement, 1,900. In case of an emergency the foyer can be used to accommodate more. Automatic folding chairs have been placed in the house from bottom to top. The seats on the lower floor are handsomely upholstered with costly blue plush, as also are those in the family circle, and all are supplied with the latest improvements in the way of hat racks, arm-rests, etc. No seats in the house are crowded and they are so arranged that a fine view of the stage can be seen in any of them. The heating and ventilating appliances are perfect. By means of a large fan, the air is taken from the top of the building and forced down into the house in pure, and after becoming heated by passing through the steam coils it is forced into the theatre, driving out foul air and giving a new supply to the entire room every seven minutes. By the same means the temperature of the room can be reduced by forcing the air through cold coils.

The interior has over one thousand four hundred incandescent lights burning and the scene is of continued splendor. The stage equipments are equal to any of the metropolitan theatres in the country. Thomas G. Moser representing Samsan & Landis, of Chicago, with an able corps of assistants did the work of painting the scenes. The dressing rooms are numerous and convenient and are arranged with all the latest improvements.

Mr. S. F. Whitaker, the architect and superintendent, deserves much credit for the able manner in which he has conducted affairs from the start, and Messrs. Hovey and Phillips the gentlemanly managers deserve credit as much for securing Emma Abbott and her company for the opening last evening.

Miss Abbott will give "Chimes of Normandy" as New Year's matinee in Salt Lake instead of matinee on Saturday.

General Cleanups.

Managers Hovey and Phillips, of the Grand opera house, moved their office from the First National bank building to the box office yesterday forenoon.

The Emma Abbott Opera company arrived from Sacramento at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The following telegrams are uncanceled for in the Western Union telegraph office: F. F. Coffin, M. Williams and Joseph M. Koons.

Manager Peter McCourt of the Tabor Grand opera house of Denver, arrived in the city yesterday morning and was present at the opening of the Grand last evening. He is an intimate friend of Messrs. Hovey and Phillips.

The streets were crowded with people yesterday.

Every hotel in the city was crowded with guests yesterday. About thirty-four of the Emma Abbott troupe are at the Brown Hotel. The street cars were still running with their former regularity yesterday.

Only one solitary drunk broke the monotony of the police court yesterday.

The passenger trains arrived at the union depot generally on time yesterday.

First District Court.

Judge James A. Miner made disposition of the following cases in the First district court yesterday:

In reapplication of John E. Bagley to practice law, on motion of H. W. Smith on presentation of a certificate from the supreme court of Kansas, he was admitted.

United States vs. John Archibald; arraigned, pleaded guilty to unlawful cohabitation, waived time and asked for sentence. Judgment, two months' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

United States vs. John Archibald; arraigned for unlawful cohabitation, pleaded guilty, waived time and asked for sentence. Judgment, one month.

United States vs. Frank Goetz; arraigned for fornication, pleaded not guilty.

United States vs. William Thraill; on motion of D. Evans bail reduced to $100, which he obtained and was released.

Thraill was arrested in this city about six weeks ago on complaint of United States Postal Inspector Lawrence for using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

The People vs. C. F. Loomis; trial for burglary. The following jury was empaneled: John Bradley, J. M. Phillips, John W. Allen, Aaron DeWitt, Herbert Orme, George Hume, Andrew Rose, Edward Sewell, John Gunner, M. G. Van Dyke, B. C. Walton and Thomas Grant.

Loomis is the fellow captured by the police during the carnival while in the act of breaking into the store of the Ogden Liquor company.

The People vs. Clab Cooper, et al.; order for a writ of attachment for Elsie St. Omar, defaulting witness.

Eccles Lumber company vs. A. J. L. Beaman; on motion of Mr. Impler, on giving security for costs and filing a bond for $2,000 to indemnify plaintiff for all loss, the sale on execution will be ordered stayed.

Died in the Hospital.

Two deaths occurred in the city hospital Sunday last. The victims were Ed. J. Ryan, aged 52 years, and Edward Ryan, aged 48. It was a singular coincidence, both bearing the same name, nearly of the same age, and they died of the same disease, pneumonia.

The funeral took place from the undertaking establishment of Judge Preshaw, and the remains were interred in the city cemetery. The former was a carpenter by trade and had been at work on some of the new buildings.

To the Penitentiary.

John Archibald, who was convicted in the First district court yesterday for unlawful cohabitation, was taken to the penitentiary to serve a sentence of three months last evening by deputy United States marshal.

The Monte Cristos Sued.

Quite an interesting case will come up in the First district court in a few days. The inhabitants of the "Monte Cristos" of the Rocky Mountains is near $11,000, the receipts of the late carnival lacked that amount of paying the expenses that accrued. Suit has been brought against about forty members of the association by the Boyle Furniture company and S. J. Burt & Brothers, to recover $1,276.15 claimed to be due them, and the costs of the suit.

The Monte Cristos have decided to hold council, and will make a desperate fight against paying the amount. Kimball and Allison have been employed to defend them.

Sent Home.

The hearing of Levi Priest came up before Judge R. W. Cross yesterday morning. Priest is a young boy probably near the age of fifteen years. A couple of weeks ago he and another youth achieved the idea making an overland trip to Oregon. When an occasion presented itself they appropriated two horses from a pasture and started on their journey. Sheriff Beinap was notified and given a description of the lads by their parents. The sheriff began searching and succeeded in capturing Priest at Snowville on his return home. After hearing the case the judge ruled that he is dismissed and that the boy return to his home.

PRONOUNCED HOPELESS, YET SAVED.

From a letter received from Mrs. Ada E. Hard, of Greston, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co.'s drug store, regular size 50c. and $1.00. 4

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

Apparently a certain morning journal of this city seeming to be better posted on my intentions than I am myself will be observed by their statement on the 21st inst., to the effect that as soon as I had settled my business affairs I contemplated moving to New Denver. Now I wish to inform my friends and the public in general that at no time during the past twelve years have I ever contemplated going to Denver or any other place, nor have I ever given the least intimation to any person or persons of any intention on my part to leave Salt Lake City. On the contrary, they have always been informed that I am located here for good.

I have been identified with various business enterprises in this city since 1873, and for the past six years in the insurance business representing the leading companies of America and Europe, in fire, life and accident, my office for the past year has been and still is in the Progress block, rooms 514 and 515, where I or one of my representatives can always be found, and I will be pleased to have all my old friends and all at any time, as will be delighted to form the acquaintance of all new comers, and have them bear in mind that the agency of Louis Hyams is one of the largest if not the largest in the country, the combined cash capital and assets represented in my office being over $300,000,000. Respectfully, Louis Hyams, Salt Lake City, December 30, 1890.
